Re: Ramirez v. Group Short Term Disability, Long Term Disability and Life Plan for Employees of ZB Company, Inc., et al.
Case No.: 20-cv-09624 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

The undersigned represents plaintiff Glenda Ramirez in the above-referenced ERISA disability action. Further to your Honor's order of March 19 (Docket No. 25), I write to clarify that my earlier statement about "working something out" (Docket No. 24) was intended as a reference to discovery, not settlement. To date, no settlement discussions have taken place.

As to part (2) of the order, plaintiff needs additional discovery in reference to her allegations that Hartford Life's conduct ran afoul of pertinent sections of the applicable Department of Labor regulations, which allegations, spelled out in ¶¶ 13, 17, 25-28 and 30-33 of the amended complaint, Hartford Life has denied. Having conferred with counsel for Hartford Life on the subject, it is believed that written interrogatories are the most efficient way to proceed (initially, at least), and if it meets with the Court's approval, plaintiff will serve same by April 7, with responses due May 7 (30 days later).

The application is GRANTED. Plaintiff shall serve any interrogatories by April 7, 2021, and Defendants shall serve responses by May 7, 2021.

By April 8, 2021, the parties shall jointly file a letter proposing a briefing schedule for any anticipated motions for summary judgment.

Dated: March 26, 2021
New York, New York

Respectfully submitted,
